Liability Policy

Relationship of the insurer, the policyholder and the insured in connection with liability insurance is governed by the insurance contract and by this policy that represents its integral part.

Please, read this insurance policy carefully, above all the provisions that may restrict the insurance coverage.

Words and phrases that appear in bold print in this policy have special meanings defined in Article 3. Definitions.

1. Insurance risk, insured event

The insured event for the purposes of this insurance shall mean arising of a legal liability of the insured for damages caused to a third party in connection with business of the insured, provided that such damages occurred during the policy period and within the territorial limits, unless stated otherwise in the relevant provision.

In case of the insured event pursuant to the paragraph above, the insurer will pay to the insured the indemnity in the amount of damages and costs and expenses under the conditions of the relevant insurance contract and this insurance policy, up to the limits of liability.

2. Extensions

If so stated in the insurance contract, in case of the insured event specified in the preceding Article the insurer will pay the indemnity also in the amount of damages pursuant to the extensions below.

Provisions of other parts of this policy including exclusions also apply to the insurance cover under the extensions below (including situations when the employee or the principal or any other person is the insured under such insurance).

The insurer will pay the indemnity under the extensions below up to the sublimit applicable to one and all insured events from this insurance, provided that the amount of such sublimit is specified in the insurance contract.

2.1 Cross Liabilities

Where more than one party comprises the insured, the insurer will provide the indemnity to each of the insured in the same extent and under the same conditions as if each of such insureds concluded separate insurance contract; this also applies to any claim by one insured against any other insured, except of personal and advertising injury (i.e. no indemnity will be provided in case of liability of one insured against other insured for the person and advertising injury).

2.2 Damage to Leased or Rented Premises

Notwithstanding 4.5 of this policy, the insurer will pay the indemnity in the amount of material damage caused to the premises (including fixtures and fittings) leased or rented to the insured in connection with the business of the insured, provided that the insured is liable for such material damage.

Except for the general exclusions in Article 4 below, insurance under this extension does not cover any material damage to any such premises if the insured is entitled to indemnity in respect of such material damage from any other insurance, including property insurance.

2.3 Damage to Personal Effects of the Employees, Directors and Visitors of the Insured

Notwithstanding 4.5 of this policy, the insurer will pay the indemnity in the amount of material damage caused to the property personal effects (including motor vehicles) belonging to the employees, statutory body of the insured, members of statutory and control bodies of the insured and visitors of the insured, provided that such material damage is caused in connection with business of the insured and the insured is liable for such material damage.

2.4 Legal Defence Costs

The insurer will pay to insured or at the request of the insured to any employee or principal of the insured the indemnity in the amount of costs incurred by such persons with the prior written consent of the insurer for the defence of any criminal proceedings (including appeal proceedings) against such persons brought for bodily injury caused as result of breach of health and safety at work regulations that is the insured event under this insurance. In case of the appeal proceedings, the indemnity under this extension will be paid only provided that the appeal is not apparently unsuccessful.

Except for the general exclusions in Article 4 below, insurance under this extension does shall not apply to proceedings consequent upon any deliberate act or omission.

2.5 Personal Liability Overseas

The insurer will pay the insured and at the request of the insured to any employee or principal of the insured or spouse of any such person (including person in registered partnership pursuant to relevant legal regulations) the indemnity in the amount of damages in respect of bodily injury or material damage occurred while temporarily outside the territorial limits in connection with the business provided that such persons caused and are liable for such damage; such persons shall be considered insureds for the purposes of this extension.

Except for the general exclusions in Article 4 below, insurance under this extension does not cover any bodily injury or material damage:

- a) on any real property owned, leased or rented by the insured or his close person or a person who is a member of the business group with the insured;
- b) insured by any other policy of insurance;
- c) any manual work outside the territory of the European Union member states.

2.6 Vendors Indemnity

The insurer will pay at the request of the insured to any person or organisation specified in the insurance contract (herein referred to as "vendor") indemnity in the amount of bodily injury or material damage arising out of the insured's products distributed or sold in the regular course of the vendor's business; such persons shall be considered insureds for the purposes of this extension.

Except for the general exclusions in Article 4 below, insurance under this extension does not cover any bodily injury or material damage in connection with:

- a) any express warranty unauthorised by the insured;
- b) any physical or chemical change in the form of the products made intentionally by vendor or any other person than the insured;
- c) repacking unless unpacked solely for the purpose of inspection, demonstration, testing or the substitution of parts under instruction from the insured and then repacked in the original container;
- d) demonstration, installation, servicing or repair operations except demonstration performed at the vendor's premises in connection with the sale of the products;
- e) products which after distribution or sale by the insured have been labelled or re-labelled or used as a container part or ingredient of any other thing or substance by or for the vendor.

This extension shall not apply to any person or organisation from whom or which the insured has acquired such products or any ingredient part or container entering into accompanying or containing such products.

2.7 Subrogation Claims of the Health Insurers in Connection with Employees

Notwithstanding 4.4 of this policy, the insurer will pay the indemnity in the amount of the claim of:

- a) health insurer against the insured for payment of costs of the health care provided to the insured's employee that suffered a work injury or an occupational disease as a result of a wrongful act caused by the insured in connection with business of the insured; and
- b) health insurance authority against the insured for payment of health insurance benefits paid to the insured for the reason described in the previous paragraph.

2.8 Products Recall Expense

Notwithstanding 4.6 of this policy, the insurer will pay the indemnity in the amount of below mentioned costs incurred by the insured with the prior written consent of the insurer or by a third party provided that the insured is liable for such costs, as a result of defect of the product, of which the insured first became aware and which was first reported in writing to the insurer during the policy period and the defect of the product is a result of one or more of the following events:

- a) the accidental omission by the insured of a substance or component in the products, which is generally part of such product;
- b) the accidental introduction or the accidental substitution by the insured of a deleterious substance or of a defective component in the products;

- c) an unintentional error or deficiency in the manufacture, design, blending, mixing, compounding, packaging or labelling of the products by the insured but only if such error or deficiency is known or recognised as such in the industry at the time such error or deficiency occurred.

A recall by order of a government, federal, state, or other regulatory body or official shall also be an insured event provided that any such recall is a result of an event specified in sub-paragraphs a), b) or c) above.

The indemnity under this extension shall be provided in connection with reasonable and necessary costs and expenses incurred in connection with recall of the products from the buyer, distributor or the user and/or their disposal, provided that use, consumption or storage of such products has caused or could cause bodily injury of third parties or material damage to property of third parties, for:

- a) publication of the product's defect in newspaper, magazine, radio and television announcements, correspondence and other communications;
- b) the transportation of the products from any purchaser, distributor or user to the place or places designated by the insured;
- c) the hire of additional persons who are not existing employees of the insured and increased remuneration costs (including compensation of overtime);
- d) expenses incurred by the insured's employees for transportation and accommodation;
- e) the cost of the rent or hire of additional warehouse or storage space;
- f) the extra costs incurred to properly dispose of any recalled products and/or packaging materials that cannot be re-used.

The indemnity under this extension shall be provided in the amount of the above-described costs and expenses after making proper deduction for all recoveries and salvages collectible.

For the avoidance of doubt, the insurer will pay the indemnity under this extension up to the sublimit specified in the insurance contract for product recall. For the purposes of such sublimit and its application, all costs and expenses in connection with product recall incurred for different types, series or models of one product are considered costs and expenses resulting from one insured event.

Notwithstanding the Article 1 paragraph 1 of this policy, insurance under this extension is claims made and applies solely to liability for damage claims first made against the insured during the policy period (and that notification shall be considered a moment of insured event's occurrence) and notified to the insurer during the policy period or within 30 days of expiry thereof.

A retroactive date specified in the insurance contract shall apply to insurance under this extension, i.e. this insurance applies solely to recall of products that were sold or distributed after such retroactive date.

Except for the general exclusions in Article 4 below, insurance under this extension does not cover:

- a) recall of:
 - i) products which are similar to the products giving rise to an insured event under this extension;
 - ii) products being of the same trade or brand name but of different batches than that which has been determined as being a likely cause of loss under this extension, if the products are identifiable by batch, code, or other means;
- b) inherent deterioration, decomposition or transformation of the products, or the products reaching the end of the period within which use or consumption or storage is recommended;
- c) loss of customer faith or approval or any costs incurred to regain customer faith or approval or other consequential loss arising therefrom;
- d) changes in the condition of the products or any part thereof if such changes are caused by the act or omission of any person other than the insured and whether occurring before or after the release of such products by the insured and circumstances arising from any deliberate act or omission by the insured;
- e) any pre-existing condition of the products which could possibly become a cause of loss under this extension and of which the insured had or should have had prior knowledge;
- f) any occurrence arising from products which were sold or supplied prior to the retroactive date shown in the insurance contract;
- g) withdrawal of any product without the reasonably held belief that its use or consumption or storage would or could result in either bodily injury or material damage;
- h) use of materials after they have been banned or declared unsafe by any authorised governmental entity;
- i) acts or omissions of any of the insured's employees and of which any of statutory body of the insured or its member, member of supervisory or management board of the Insured or of any control body or managing employee (vedoucí zaměstnanec) had or should have had prior knowledge;

- j) the express conditions of any contract or agreement entered into by the insured which imposes costs or expenses for the recall or replacement of the products which would not have been incurred in the absence of such contract or agreement.

2.9 Environmental Liability

Notwithstanding 4.12 of this policy, the insurer will pay to the insured the indemnity in the amount of the remediation costs and regulatory authority costs incurred by the insured in connection with pollution on, at, under or migrating from any property owned or leased by the insured where such remediation costs and regulatory authority costs result from regulatory action first imposed on the insured during the policy period and notified to the insurer during the same policy period or within 60 days of expiry thereof, provided that such pollution occurred:

A. Remediation of new pollution

after the reverse retroactive date specified in the insurance contract;

B. Remediation of unknown historic pollution before the reverse retroactive date specified in the insurance contract, provided that the insured (or its responsible official) did not know or could not have known about such pollution.

Except for the general exclusions in Article 4 below, insurance under this extension does not cover:

- a) lead or lead-containing materials, on or in structures;
- b) arising from any pollution discovered in the course of replacement, repair or capital improvement activities at any property owned or leased by the insured;
- c) any change in ownership or a material change in use of any property owned or leased by the insured;
- d) in respect of loss of damage to loss of use of or diminishment in value of property belonging to the insured or in the custody or control of the insured or any employee or agent of the insured other than in respect of remediation costs;
- e) in respect of bodily injury sustained by any employee or former employee arising out of and in the course of employment by the insured in the business;
- f) intentional disregard of or knowing wilful or deliberate non-compliance with any statute, regulation or decision or instruction of any public authority, judicial body or any similar authority or any responsible official;
- g) any of which are the subject of indemnity under any other provision of this policy or would be but for the limit of liability applicable thereto or any other insurance issued by the insurer, including property or contractor's insurance;
- h) any pollution on at under or migrating from any property or structure owned, leased, operated or controlled by the insured which is situated offshore;
- i) any permission, obligation or condition required by any competent authority in connection with building or planning permit a/or pursuant to the Act Number 183/2006 Coll., on Territorial Planning and Building Code (Building Act), as amended;
- j) anything sold, supplied, altered, constructed, repaired, serviced, designed, tested, installed or processed by or on behalf of the insured including containers, packaging or labelling and which is not in the possession of the insured at the time of the occurrence;
- k) any pollution discovered during or as a result of any site investigation or associated activities undertaken for the purpose of an application of a regulatory action by the insured;
 - i) to obtain or maintain a permit to operate an installation, facility or equipment at any property owned or leased by the insured;
 - ii) to develop or undertake construction activity at any property owned or leased by the insured;
- l) any pollution which emanates from any tank or associated piping and appurtenance which tank has more than 10% of its volume below ground the presence of which was known to a responsible official prior to the commencement of the reverse retroactive date.

2.10 Pure Financial Loss

Notwithstanding 4.20 of this policy, the insurer will pay the indemnity in the amount of pure financial loss, i.e. loss that does not constitute bodily injury or material damage (including any financial losses directly stemming from them).

Except for the general exclusions in Article 4 below, insurance under this extension does not cover:

- a) financial loss arising out of:
 - i) delay non-performance or non-completion in carrying out a contract;
 - ii) strikes, labour disturbances, insolvency, financial default, any act of fraud or dishonesty deceit, conspiracy, breach of contract, breach of anti-trust laws;

- iii) libel, slander or other intervention into dignity, honour, esteem and privacy or infringement of any industrial right including patents, copyrights, trade-marks or trade names or other object of industrial property with the exception of damages specified in article 3.7 e) of this policy;
 - iv) breach of trust, breach of warranty of authority or breach of duty owed to shareholders, investors or partners by any director or officer of the insured;
 - v) the sale or supply of any investment or financial product or service or the provision of or failure to provide any instruction advice information or professional service whether or not rendered in return for a fee;
 - vi) circumstances known to the insured prior to the commencement date of this extension;
 - vii) any agreement to store process or supply computer data (including supply of information derived from such computer data) for a fee or by reciprocal arrangement;
- b) any costs for removing of the defective product and mantling of the product free of defect;
- c) liability arising from any interaction between a computer or computer system:
- i) belonging to the insured, or
 - ii) for which the insured is responsible, or
 - iii) which is being operated on behalf of the insured
- and a computer or computer system of a third party.

2.11 Dismantling and Mantling Costs

Notwithstanding 4.20 of this policy, the insurer will pay the indemnity in the amount of pure financial loss, i.e. loss that does not constitute bodily injury or material damage (including any financial losses directly stemming from them), occurred to the third party in connection with incurred costs for dismantling of the defective products supplied by the insured, their removal and mantling of products free of defects.

Except for the general exclusions in Article 4 below, insurance under this extension does not cover:

- a) situation when the insured on its own or its own behalf and on own responsibility installs or mantles defective products for products free of defects;
- b) costs in connection with purchase of the products free of defects including any costs for transportation to the injured party;
- c) any products that are part of the airplanes or vessels.

In cases where the removal of defective products is not feasible, economically justified and purposeful, the insurer will provide indemnity in the amount of costs incurred by a third party to another remedy, which is intended to prevent the consequences arising from the existence of defects before the replacement of faulty products, however, in the maximum amount which would have been granted if the replacement of defective products occurred. If the defect of the supplied product can be removed in its installed state and the exchange is not required, any measures to eliminate such defect are not considered a remedy, which is covered by insurance under this provision.

2.12 Claims made basis optional

The insurance contract may set out that this insurance is claims made. In such case the insurer shall provide the indemnity solely in respect of liability for damage claims first made against the insured during the policy period (and that notification shall be considered a moment of insured event's occurrence) and notified to the insurer during the policy period or within 30 days of expiry thereof or from the day the insured learns about such claim.

The following conditions shall apply in respect of the claims made insurance:

a) Retroactive date

Insurance cover applies exclusively to liability of the insured for damage based on a wrongful act or other relevant legal fact underlying to the liability, which has occurred after the retroactive date, indicated as such in the insurance contract, and before the expiry of the policy period. If no date is set out in the insurance contract as retroactive date, the date of inception of the insurance shall be considered the retroactive date.

b) Discovery period

Discovery period means the period of 12 months (or any other period agreed in the insurance contract) immediately after expiry of the policy period during which the insured may, subject to further provisions of this clause, the conditions and the insurance contract, notify claims made in that period regarding liability of the insured for damage, based on a wrongful act or other relevant legal fact underlying to the liability, which has occurred prior to the expiry of the policy period. The policyholder's right to purchase the discovery period cover as set out above must be exercised by notice to the insurer within 10 days of expiration of the policy period, and is only effective upon full payment of the additional premium.

The cover shall be extended to apply for the discovery period only in the following situations:

- i) If the insurer refuses to renew the insurance contract, by payment of an additional premium set out in the contract for such case; the insurer's offer of renewal terms, conditions, indemnity limits or premium different from those of the expiring insurance contract shall not constitute a refusal to renew;
- ii) If the policyholder refuses to renew the insurance contract, by payment of an additional premium set out in the contract for such case.

2.13 Care, custody and control

Notwithstanding 4.5 of this policy, the insurer will pay the indemnity in the amount of material damage to property which the insured lawfully uses, looks after, stores, transports or for other reason has under control for purpose of performing its contractual obligations relating to that property.

insurance) or alleging or derived from the same or substantially the same facts or circumstances alleged in the pending or prior litigation or proceedings.

4.23 Prior notification

If the insurance is agreed as claims made, any liability based on, arising from or attributable to any fact, circumstance, act, omission, claim, wrongful act or other matter of which notice has been given under any insurance contract existing or expired before or on the inception date of the policy period of this insurance contract.

5. General provisions

A. Policy Limit

The insurer will provide indemnity for the policy period in the maximum amount of limit of liability specified in the insurance contract that applies regardless number of insured events, amounts claims, number of insureds who claim or when such claims have arisen. Some types of indemnity may be further limited by sublimit specified in the insurance contract. Any sublimit specified in the insurance contract shall be the insurer's maximum aggregate liability for policy period in connection with such type of indemnity, regardless of the number of insured events, amounts claims, number of insureds who claim or when such claims have arisen. Any sublimit is part of and not in addition to the limit of liability specified in the insurance contract.

Unless agreed otherwise, the salvage costs shall be limited to CZK 10.000, respectively to 30% of the limit of liability in case of rescue of life or protection of people's health.

B. Excess

The insurer shall pay indemnity in relation to each insured event only in the extent exceeding excess as set out in the insurance contract. The amount of excess is borne by the insured.

C. Obligations of the Insured

The insured is obligated to:

- a) properly use all efforts to ensure that the insured event does not occur, that the insurance risk does not increase and that negative consequences (damage for which it would be liable) arising or potentially arising from an insured event (threatening in general or directly or already occurring or having occurred) are reduced to a maximum extent possible, in particular by remedying any defect or danger upon discovery thereof and taking such additional precautions as the circumstances may require;
- b) not to violate duties set by regulations (legal of any kind, norms, other standards like generally accepted codes of practice or any requirements or recommendations of public authorities) aimed at averting occurrence of an insured event or reducing the damage arising thereof, such as in particular those with regard to the protection of persons and property, fire protection regulations, construction and technical maintenance regulations;
- c) prevent, to a maximum extent which may reasonably be required, violation of the regulations under (b) by its employees or by any other person acting of which could be considered being acting on behalf of the insured, and carefully select its employees, subcontractors or any other persons acting on its behalf;
- d) notify the insurer without undue delay of any changes in circumstances which could affect the insurance risk and/or severity of consequences of an insured event, in particular all changes in matters of fact communicated to the insurer when entering into or amending the contract;
- e) observe all recommendations and requirements indicated of the insurer;
- f) enable to the insurer (and its staff and any agents) to access the premises of the insured or any other place where its business activities are performed, in order to inspect them, and submit to it all business documentation; as a rule, the insurer shall use this right upon preliminary approval of the insured and in a manner not affecting ordinary course of its business; exercise of the right of the insurer or any of its findings do not mean that the property is secured and in compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- g) report to the insurer immediately existence of any other insurance contract which might give rise to multiple insurance in the future, i.e. any contract the insurance cover of which fully or in part overlaps with that of this insurance;
- h) inform without undue delay the insurer about any change of delivery address.

D. Claims Procedure

The insured shall give immediate written notice of any loss event to the insurer to the address specified in the insurance contract, including its basic description (as to likely cause and extent), the injured party claiming (in writing, by initiating any proceedings or otherwise) its compensation or initiating any other proceedings relating thereto and affecting or potentially affecting the insured, without undue delay, however within 10 working days at a maximum.

The insured is further obligated to:

- a) provide the insurer with any explanations, furnish any available information required to determine the circumstances of the insured event, scope of damage, status and/or prospects of any threatening or pending litigation and enable the insurer to conduct any explanatory procedure;
- b) enable the insurer at any time to manage and supervise defence and/or legal representation of the insured or conduct negotiations on his behalf on settlement of the claim, and adhere to the instructions of the insurer as to its own conduct in respect of that (including for instance by acknowledging the claim in order not to further increase costs and expenses of both sides and the penalty interest). The insurer, however, is not obliged to perform such tasks or to perform them permanently;
- c) without previous consent of the insurer, not to:
 - i) take any step by which it would admit its liability or would make any other issue in that respect undisputed or to inform or otherwise make aware the injured party that it might successfully claim more under applicable regulations than it actually claims;
 - ii) to acknowledge or settle any claim;
- d) use all legal remedies available for defence against the claim, both substantive law (in particular raising objection of statutory bar) and regular procedural ones (such as appeals); in addition, it is obliged to inform the insurer good time in advance before lapse or relevant period for employing relevant procedural remedy, so that the insurer could instruct it either (i) not to employ regular procedural remedy or (ii) to employ extraordinary procedural remedy;
- e) duly cooperate with the insurer with all further assistance including when negotiating with the injured party conditions under which it might accept provision of the indemnity in form of a one-time payment rather than a term or life annuity.

If the insured learns during the policy period about any circumstances that may give rise to the insured event under this insurance and notifies the insurer about such circumstances, any such later insured event against the insured shall be considered insured event occurred during the policy period.

E. Subrogation

If any payment is made by the insurer from this insurance, the insurer will be subrogated to all rights of indemnity, contribution or recovery of the insured in relation to that payment.

The insured will take all reasonable steps to preserve such rights and co-operate with the insurer including providing the insurer with all relevant written documentation and undertaking all necessary acts. The insured may not surrender any right, or settle any claim for indemnity, contribution or recovery, without the prior written consent of the insurer.

F. Assignment

The insured may not transfer any legal right or obligation under this policy or assign the insurance contract without the prior written consent of the insurer.

G. Headings

In this policy headings are merely descriptive and not to aid interpretation.

H. Form of payment

The insurer shall not be obliged to provide insurance benefits in any other form than by provision of financial compensation irrespective of whether the civil code enables non-monetary compensation of loss.

I. Fraudulent Claims

If the insured makes a claim for indemnity under this insurance knowing the same to be false or fraudulent as regards the amount or otherwise, the insurer has right to refuse to provide insurance benefits. The policyholder does not have right to return of any premium paid. By refusal of the insurance benefits, this insurance is not terminated.

J. Insurable Interest

The insurance can be concluded only provided that the policyholder has an insurable interest.

If the policyholder knowingly insures a non-existent insurable interest without the insurer's knowledge, the insurance contract is invalid; in such a case the insurer has a right for premium until the date it learns about invalidity of the insurance contract.

The policyholder and the insured shall inform the insurer in writing without undue delay when the insurable interest ceases to exist; in such a case this insurance is also terminated; the insurer has, however, right to the premium until the date it learns about such termination.

K. Insurance Risk

The policyholder or the insured shall not, without the insurer's consent, do anything or allow any other person to do anything that may increase the insurance risk. The policyholder and the insured shall inform the insurer in writing without undue delay about any change or termination of the insurance risk which occurred during the policy period.

If the insurance risk is increased during the policy period, the insured has right to propose amendment to the insurance contract or to terminate the insurance contract in accordance with relevant statutory provisions. If the insurance risk is substantially reduced during the policy period, the insurer shall reduce the premium proportionally with effect from the day it learns about such reduction.

L. Period of Insurance and Cancellation

The insurance contract is concluded for a definite policy period as stated in the insurance contract.

This insurance shall cease or be terminated in cases set out in the civil code, particularly:

- a) by elapsing of the policy period;
- b) by expiry of an additional period for payment of premium as set out in the insurer's notice providing the overdue premium is not paid;
- c) by agreement of the parties;
- d) with eight days' notice period within 2 months after conclusion of the insurance contract;
- e) with one month notice period within 3 months from the receipt of the notification on any insured event; and
- f) by withdrawal.

M. Premium

The premium shall be a lump sum premium unless otherwise set out in the insurance contract. The premium is payable within the period specified in the insurance contract. The premium shall be considered as paid on the date it is credited to the insurer's account as set out in the insurance contract or if the insurance contract does not set out such an account to other account duly notified to the policyholder. In case of delayed payment of premium, the insurance shall not be interrupted.

N. Decisive Law and Dispute Resolution

This policy of insurance shall be governed by Czech Law. Any dispute arising from or otherwise relating to this insurance shall be decided by the relevant court in the Czech Republic.

O. Written Form and Amendments

The insurance contract and other legal acts relating to this insurance shall be made in a written form. The insurance contract may only be amended by a written agreement of the parties.

P. Delivery

The policyholder and the insured shall notify the insurer without undue delay about any change of their delivery address.

Communications in writing sent under this policy shall be delivered to the address of a party set out in the insurance contract or otherwise duly communicated to the sender. The addressee is obliged to ensure that a duly addressed communication is accepted within three working days after first due attempt to deliver. If the addressee makes the delivery impossible (e.g. due to failure to notify the change of delivery address or new delivery address), such shipment is considered to be delivered on the third working day after its posting (or at the fifteenth day after the posting in case the delivery address is outside the Czech Republic).

Q. Severability

Any information provided to the insurer by the insured shall not be imputed to any other insured to determine whether cover is available for that other insured.

Only statements made in the proposal including any communication prior to conclusion of the insurance contract and knowledge possessed by an insured who is the subject of a claim under this policy shall be imputed to the policyholder for the sole purposes of determining if cover is available for loss with respect to such insured.

R. Exclusions of Certain Statutory Provisions

Section 1740 paragraph 3 of the civil code regarding acceptance of an offer with supplements or variations shall not apply.

Section 1743 of the civil code regarding late oral acceptance of an offer or acceptance of an offer by behaviour in accordance with the offer shall not apply.

Sections 1799 and 1800 of the civil code regarding contracts concluded adhesively shall not apply.

S. Sanctions Limitation

Chubb European Group Limited is a subsidiary of a US parent and Chubb Limited (a NYSE listed company) and part of the Chubb Group of companies. Consequently, Chubb European Group Limited is subject to certain US laws and regulations in addition to EU, UN and national sanctions restrictions which may prohibit it from providing cover or paying claims to certain individuals or entities, and from insuring certain types of activities in or connected with certain countries and territories such as, but not limited to, Iran, Syria, North Korea, North Sudan, Cuba and Crimea.

T. Personal Data Protection

Personal data of the policyholder and the insured are processed by the insurer while any rights and obligations under the insurance contract exist, the scope of the processed data includes particularly the name, surname, birth certificate number or date of birth and other personal data for the purpose of fulfilment of rights and obligations under the insurance contract, including: (i) administration of the insurance including settlement of claims for insurance benefits, (ii) decision whether insurance may be provided, (iii) prevention and investigation of possible criminal activity, including fraud and money laundering activities, and (iv) compliance with the requirements of supervisory authorities.

The insurer is authorized to use these personal data also for marketing purposes, unless the policyholder or the insured notifies the Insurer of its disapproval with such use of the data.

For the above described reasons the personal data may be provided to the necessary extent to the companies in the insurer's group, to any service providers and agents or persons where required by law. For the above reasons, the insurer may transfer the personal data, including electronic storage, outside the European Union (European Economic Area).

The policyholder and the insured have a right to access their personal data and a right for correction of such personal data. Should the insurer process inaccurate personal data or should the policyholder and the insured have other doubts regarding violation of their privacy and personal life or violation of other obligations according to the relevant legislation on personal data protection, he/she may request an explanation from the insurer and request rectification steps to be taken. The policyholder or the insured may request particularly blocking, correction, addition or disposal of such personal data. If the insurer fails to comply with such request, the policyholder and the insured may refer this matter to the Office for Personal Data Protection. They may also contact the Office for Personal Data Protection directly.

U. Complaints

In case of any complaints or enquiries regarding this insurance, please contact the insurance intermediary through which the insurance contract was concluded or the insurer on the address stated in the insurance contract.
