Loss Prevention Consultant Services
REIMBURSEMENT INFORMATION

Name of Applicant: _____

Chubb has partnered with The Ackerman Group, LLC to offer a range of security and travel awareness seminars designed to help our customers mitigate kidnap, ransom and extortion exposures.

Chubb reimbursement is available for a portion of the cost of preventative training services used (100% of the cost up to 10% of the KR&E policy period premium) that directly relate to the Kidnap, Ransom and Extortion coverage offered. Application for reimbursement may occur at any time during a policy period for services provided during that policy period. To access information on The Ackerman Group and the training sessions they offer, visit www.ackermangroup.com or refer to your policy for additional information.

If you are an existing Chubb KR&E policyholder and have not yet submitted your eligible loss prevention service costs for reimbursement, complete this form and return it with your renewal application.

If you are a new Chubb KR&E policyholder, you immediately become eligible for reimbursement for eligible loss prevention service costs incurred during the new policy period and may submit this form for reimbursement at the time the cost is incurred or any subsequent time during the policy period.
